

We've got you covered!

Tax investigation cover for you and your business.

At PJC we like to keep the best interests of our clients at heart which is why we have partnered with Croner Taxwise to provide our clients with a tax investigation cover free of charge. This cover also comes with a number of additional benefits. Read on friends...

A tax investigation could cost you money even if you've done nothing wrong.

HMRC are proactively targeting individuals and businesses using sophisticated software that has been specifically developed to search trends, indicators and behaviours and analyse in minutes. Data that doesn't cross match can automatically initiate an Enquiry. All of this means your chances of being investigated are rising

HMRC FACTS

£34 billion - The estimated tax gap between what the HMRC should collect and what it does collect.

£26 billion - The additional amount of annual tax income that HMRC are targeting to achieve through compliance activity.

£80 million - Spent to develop strategic risk database that automatically generates tax enquiries.
